Don't forget to order:

The Book!

Even if you can't make it to the Reunion, you'll want a copy of our Reunion 35 Book -- complete with all the info you're dying to know about everyone from the Class of 1970!! Who's now a millionaire? Who's still in Ames? Who's got 8 grandkids already? To get your copy, just return the Reunion 35 Questionnaire (enclosed with this flyer) by June 1 with a check for $10.00 to cover publication costs and postage. (For those attending the Reunion, the cost of your book is already included in the registration fee -- but you also must complete the questionnaire so we'll know all about you!)

What to do when you're back in Ames???

Or, if you still live here...Where to take your friends when they're back for the Reunion?

Ride the rails in a vintage 1920s passenger car on the Boone & Scenic Valley Railroad and cross the Des Moines River Valley via a 156-foot tressle! www.scenic-valleyrr.com
 Ciccotti Art Glass produces one-of-a-kind hand-blown glass pieces. Located at 2306 258th Street.
 Tour the 19th century Farm House Museum on the Iowa State campus. www.museums.iastate.edu
 Get "arty" by visiting the Octagon Center for the Arts or the Brunnier Art Museum!
 Check out the butterfly exhibit at beautiful Reiman Gardens! www.reimangardens.iastate.edu
 Ride the antique carousel in Story City -- built in 1913! www.storycity.net
 Take a walk through one of Ames' great parks!
 Drive past your former elementary school? Central? Welch? Bee-Vees? Nothing's quite the same...
 Check out www.amescvb.com for more visitor information!
